SafeData Partners with Omni Solutions

Warwick, R.I. – September 30, 2009 – SafeData, LLC, a technology company focused on helping companies protect their data, minimize downtime and recover and restore data quickly, today announced its partnership with Omni Solutions, a communications consulting firm focused on providing CIOs with a single point of contact for all their communications, data, disaster recovery and business continuity needs. Omni joins a growing number of organizations in SafeData's new Partner Program.

“Partnering with Omni Solutions is a great opportunity for us to expand our footprint and help more companies protect their mission-critical data,” explained Peter Briggs, president of SafeData. “With more than 300 consultants around the country, Omni’s team will be able to offer a complete data backup and recovery solution to its customers, and Omni and its consultants will have a recurring revenue stream to grow their own business.”

“This partnership with SafeData broadens the range of services that we can offer our customers,” said Randy Marshall, TITLE of Omni Solutions. “We are now able to offer a complete data backup solution that also provides recovery capabilities. Every business needs to have a reliable backup and recovery solution and SafeData provides a range of options to address the recovery time objectives of companies with different requirements.”
